CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Elder J. J. Spencer's meeting at Antioch, Bourbon county, resulted in 24 additions.

Sam Jones says that what some men call pastoral work is little more than taking care of a plug hat and looking after a ministerial reputation.

A New Jersey preacher startled the ladies of his congregation by condemning the fashion of big sleeves. He took his text from Ezekiel 13:18.

Wm. Hogue Wood's tongue became paralyzed while he was making a speech in Atlanta, ridiculing the Methodist church, of which he was a pastor for years.

Four preachers went from here Tuesday to the Tates' Creek Association at Gilhead: Revs. William Shelton, R. R. Noel, A. V. Sizemore and R. B. Mahony.

On next Sunday at Georgetown the dedication of the $10,000 Christian church will be a big affair. Special trains will be run to it. A lunch will be served free to visitors in the parlors of the church.

Rev. W. E. Ellis preached at the leading Christian church at Memphis Sunday, by invitation, and so greatly pleased his hearers that a unanimous call to the pastorate was extended him. The salary is $1,800 a year and a nice parsonage.

Rev. R. B. Mahony preached for his old congregation at Newport Sunday and found the church in a most flourishing condition under the pastorate of Rev. G. W. Perryman. He is doing a grand work there and is greatly beloved by his congregation.

Rev. J. M. Bruce finally severed his connection with Glasgow and left for the upper part of the State last week. No man ever stood higher with the public than Mr. Bruce, and no man was ever more sincerely beloved and esteemed by those who knew him. The departure of both himself and his excellent wife is a severe blow to a large circle of devoted friends. —Times.

The Harroldsburg Sayings has this item, which can not refer to our friend, L. M. Lasley, can it? "Rev. Lasley, who has been conducting a series of meetings at Bohon, closed his work there Monday. This singular preacher seems to be identified with no religious sect except his own. He professes sanctification and preaches this doctrine. Many strange incidents are said to have occurred during his preaching. When some applied for admission to the church membership he said the doors of the church were locked. He had a peculiar manner of shouting and would lie on his back and paw the air, as it were, with both feet."

This is the equal rights law passed by the New York republican Legislature, after which one for Kentucky will doubtless be fashioned if the republicans should carry the State in the executive and legislative races:

That all persons within the jurisdiction of this State shall be entitled to the full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities and privileges of inns, restaurants, hotels, eating-houses, bath-houses, barber shops, theatres, music halls, public conveyances on land and water, and all public accommodation or amusement, subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law and applied alike to all citizens.

The value of an ounce of fine gold that is, gold without alloy, is $20,672. If coin gold, 900 fine, it is worth $18,605. Under the free and unlimited coinage of silver, from 1793 to 1873, the total coinage of silver dollars amounted to $8,045,883. From 1873 to July 1, 1894, under compulsion coinage, the mints coined $419,338,208. About 50,000,000 of these dollars are in actual circulation among the people, and the others are in circulation among the people in the form of silver certificates. These silver certificates are redeemed, free of cost for transportation, if anybody wishes his coin silver in place of the paper.

September 4th Company B., Frankfort's crack McCrory guards that won the regimental colors at Henderson, will attend the Bourbon Fair. There will be a great crowd from Frankfort. The company will arrive in Paris at 8:30 A. M. and march to the court house, and from the court house to the fair grounds headed by Saxton's celebrated band. At 11:30 they will give an exhibition drill at the fair.

LANCASter, CARRARD COUNTY.

The Lancaster orchestra met with Miss Lula Batson Thursday evening at her pretty home on Lexington street.

Eld. George Gowen leaves Sunday afternoon to begin a protracted meeting at McCormick's church, in your county.

The union services will be at the Presbyterian church Sunday night. The sermon will be preached by Rev. F. M. Hill.

Mr. George R. Hardin and wife will leave next week for the Postal Clerk's Convention which will be held in Chicago. Mr. Hardin goes as a delegate.

Superintendent J. Hunt McMurry is having some improvements added to the property he recently purchased of Miss Ella Watson on Stanford street.

The National Bank, J. Joseph's dry goods store, H. T. Logan & Co.'s clothing store, and W. R. Robinson & Bro.'s hardware establishment will all be much improved by fresh coat of paint.

Mr. Charley Harper, a worthy young man of Shellyville, has been engaged by Mr. R. H. Batson as one of his clerks. Mr. Batson expect soon to open out the other store room adjoining the one he is at present occupying.

The report is that a "wild man" is running at large in this county near Gilberts Creek. A posse of men tried to overtake him the other day by pursuing at a very rapid rate but they failed to capture the man. To what race he belongs can not be ascertained.

The trial of Shelly Nunn for the killing of William Best a few months ago has consumed all of this week but it is thought a verdict will be rendered today. Many seem to be of the opinion that the case will go very hard with Nunn and he will either be hanged or convicted for life.

Died Tuesday at 7 o'clock p. m., at the toll gate on the Crab Orchard pike after a lingering illness of consumption, Mrs. Connelly. The funeral was preached at the house Wednesday morning by Eld. George Gowen and the interment followed in the Lancaster cemetery. The deceased died with the unfaltering trust of a Christian and with assurance that "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

The young men of the "Junior Set" will be "at home" this evening to the young ladies of their circle at the home of William Herndon on Danville street at 8 p. m. The party promises to be as inviting to the "fair ones" as a similar one they had last summer at the home of Meers, Charlie and Fred Frisbie.

Welcome and Lapeley Clark, of this place, made a bold attempt at robbery on Monday night. One of them entered the residence of Mr. R. H. Batson and while he was asleep took from his pocket the store room keys and thus secured an entrance to the store, but fortunately for the vigilance of Town Marshal Arnold they did not capture any booty. Since being put in jail the two Clark have confessed. This is the second or third attempt that has been made and some think it is the same parties that have been trying to rob the store.

Prof. B. H. Gowen and wife, of Winchester, Tenn., are expected to arrive this week and will be the guests of Elder George Gowen. J. T. Price is in Lexington attending the Fair. Mr. Houser Baughman, of Danville, was visiting his niece, Miss Nannie Sweeney, the first of the week. Miss Jennie Burnside is visiting her cousin, Miss Mabel Burnside, at Barbourville. Misses Annie and Jennie Wallace have returned from a visit to Versailles. Mrs. Sarah Cromley, of Lexington, is the guest of Mrs. Ann Hopper. Mr. Davis, of Midland, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Ann Hopper and family. Mrs. Robert Rice, of Boyle, has been the guest of Mr. H. A. B. Marsbury and family.

After five years of work and the expenditure of over $3,000,000, Niagara has finally been harnessed, and the power generated by the monster 5,000 horse-power dynamo of the Cataract Construction Company is now being sent out for local commercial use.

"What's in a name?" Only this: An Ohio woman recently presented her husband with his 16th child, and her name is Moore.

OF A LOCAL NATURE.

—Moss & Rue, Danville liverymen, will dissolve.

Nicholsville is preparing to hold a three days' trotting meeting which will begin Sept. 18.

The coming term of the Madison court will have 115 commonwealth cases to wrestle with.

Arthur C. Masters, once a captain in the English army, fell from a second story window at Middlesboro and was dangerously hurt.

The Advocate says that Mrs. Veal and Miss Withers have rented the Clemens Hotel at Danville and will run a first-class boarding house.

At Middlesboro, Charles Ray killed William Williams in a quarrel over a woman named Cora Simpson. Ray was arrested and taken to the jail at Pineville.

It is expected that there will be an attendance of 300 at the Deaf and Dumb Institute at Danville the coming session. There were 252 last year, an increase of 25 per cent. over any other year.

The Louisville and Nashville gives notice that it has leased the Mammoth Cave railroad from Glasgow Junction, and all tickets should be provided with a coupon for the M. C. railroad.

The republican convention held at Somerset placed John A. Jasper in nomination for the Legislature. F. B. Linnville, the present representative, was defeated by four votes in the convention.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

—Col. C. R. Estill, a leading citizen of Madison, is dead of gangrene, produced by a wound in the leg.

—Col. Andy Vaughn, a Mexican soldier, and a $49 gold hunter in California, died in Mereur, Monday. He had been sick for several months, and some weeks ago predicted that he would die on the 25th of August.

—Mr. John Clark, grandfather of Mr. Jesse M. Alverson, a compositor in this office, died at the home of Mrs. Alverson in Richmond Wednesday afternoon, aged 85. Deceased was highly respected and during his long sojourn on earth showed forth the virtues of a Christian life. Mrs. Pauline Covington, another octogenarian, also died in Madison this week.

—Little Rachel Gibbons Peyton, youngest daughter of George A. and Mrs. Lizzie Peyton, died Monday evening of sickness incident to teething, aged 17 months. She was a bright little thing and the idol of her parents, who are crushed with the weight of the blow and who have the sympathy of all. Rev. W. E. Ellis conducted a short service at the residence and then many friends followed the remains to the cemetery and gently laid them away.

—Miss Lizzie Kirkpatrick, daughter of Mr. David Kirkpatrick, of the Maywood section, died in Lexington Tuesday morning of pneumonia, after an illness of several weeks. Miss Kirkpatrick was preparing to make a trained nurse and would have graduated in a few months.

She was 27 years old and a splendid Christian lady. Her remains were brought home Wednesday and interred in the family burying ground in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends.

—The annual report issued by Mr. M. E. Ingalls, president Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895, shows the following gross earnings: $9,596,030.61; increase over earnings of 1894, $551,922.20. The net earnings over 1894 were $114,528.30, notwithstanding several hundred thousands of dollars were spent in repairs and improvements.

A will purporting to have been made by the late Judge Joseph Holt 20 years ago, has been filed in Washington. It bequeaths his estate, valued between $200,000 and $300,000, to Lizzie Hynes, a niece, and Josephine Throckmorton, a godchild of Judge Holt.

—Senator Quay has again triumphed, and he has demonstrated that he is the undisputed boss of the Pennsylvania republicans. He ran the committee to nominate himself and had himself elected chairman of the State committee, thus securing control of the party machine.

If there is anything in the old saying that "a hickory nut year is always a democratic year," the democrats are going to sweep everything this fall, says an exchange, for there is no end to the hickory nuts.

A MILLION FRIENDS.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at A. K. Penny's Drug Store.

HUSTONVILLE.

—So plentiful is the melon crop this season that a man brought a wagon load of musk melons from two miles beyond Danville to this market this week.

—Last Friday night the hospitable home of Mrs. Jennie Carpenter was the scene of a brilliant social event, it being a party given in honor of Misses James, of Harroldsburg, and Minnie Drye, of Bradfordsville. About 20 couples attended and a most enjoyable time was had.

—Jim Goode is authority for the statement that in cleaning the Yowell building for occupancy by Mr. Wheeler, it was found that the sparrows had been occupying the second story room and had carried grass and trash in there to make nests that when removed filled five large coffee sacks.

—Walker Lyons sold a heifer last week to Jos. Snow at 2½c. Jas. Harper sold to J. M. Snow, of Boyle, 3 heifers at $2.40 and to Hilton, of Junction City, 24 hogs at $4.80. J. W. Allen shipped Saturday a car load of fair butcher cattle to Cincinnati, for which he paid 2½ to 3c. Allen & Lyons bought in Adair 800 good feeders to be taken Oct. 1 at 4c. J. W. Allen is feeding a bunch of cattle green corn among other things to get them in shape for the market. He bought of James Goode 2 acres of corn for this purpose at $17 per acre and also bought several acres from John Reid.

—Next Friday night at 7:30 Transylvania Presbytery, South, will convene in the Presbyterian church here. The Presbytery will be opened with a sermon from Rev. A. W. Crawford, of Paint Lick, the retiring moderator. The sessions of this body are public and all having an interest in them are cordially invited to attend. The meeting will probably last about three days and during that time there will be preaching services at 11 in the forenoon and 7:30 in the evening. It has been some time since the church here entertained a meeting of Presbytery and the Presbyterian brethren are looking forward with much pleasure to the meeting.

—Last Friday, lightning struck the barn of J. K. Baughman, knocking down a mule at the water trough and striking an employee of Mr. Baughman who was in the barn at the time, about the knees, and tearing off his shoes, also stunning him for a few minutes. The bolt struck the comb of the roof of the barn near the front of the building and passed down two rafters, leaping from thence to the pump and passing along an iron pipe to the water trough, and in its passage along the pipe shocking the man and mule. The front of the barn was considerably damaged by the electric current, but strange to say, although there was a large quantity of dry hay and other inflammable materials in the loft, the building was not set on fire.

—Miss Mary Adams has been visiting in Lancaster. Nellie, the little daughter of J. B. Adams, is quite ill with typhoid fever. J. B. Cook goes this week to the mountains, having been assigned to gauge brandy in several mountain counties with Jackson as headquarters. He will have seventy distilleries to look after. He wants it understood that he intends to give the moonshiners a wide berth.

—Wm. Taylor and wife, of Louisville, who have been visiting Mrs. Mary Brown, left Friday for home. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. VanArsdale were called to Harroldsburg Monday by the serious illness of his niece, Mrs. Bud James. Mrs. Cook, formerly Miss Tom Green, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Arch McKinney, and her uncle, George Miller Givens. Mrs. Cook's fine baby boy is greatly admired by her relatives and friends. F. B. and Miss Lizzie Twidwell are back from Crab Orchard. Felix is looking greatly improved and we trust is permanently so.

—In answer to questions Gov. Campbell, of Ohio, writes: I did not favor coinage by the United States alone four years ago, nor do I now, although I am an international metallist. What I said four years ago was that I would take the chances of election upon the platform as I found it.

—Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt gave her advertised ball at Newport and its splendor is said to have exceeded anything ever seen at that gay resort. All the leading society people and the Duke of Marlborough were there.

—The latest fad in Paris is a garter show, but as the pretty things are not on the places where they belong, only women take interest in it.

—When the Court of Appeals convenes for its September term it will find a docket of over 1,000 cases awaiting a hearing.

—Randall Litey, a Mercer county cattle breeder, has been arrested for forging names of breeders to false pedigree certificates.

—Lexington Colored Fair, Sept. 4th to 7th. The Queen & Crescent Route will make half raves from all Kentucky points on this occasion. Don't fail to attend. Biggest colored fair in the United States. Splendid attractions. Ask Q. & C. agents for particulars.

OPENS SEPTEMBER 9TH.

STANFORD, KY., - AUGUST 30, 1885

W. P. WALTON.

Surpose Gen. Hardin is off on his construction of the State platform of an issue, the settlement of which he will have nothing to do unless in the remote probability of the death of a Senator, few of whom ever die in office, what will it profit a democrat to help elect Col. Bradley by voting for him or refusing to vote for the head of our ticket? Gen. Hardin represents nearly everything dear to the democratic heart, he has been a democrat tried and true, whose services were never sought in vain when the party needed them; in office he was faithful and conscientious and as a man he is above reproach. Personally we have sought to say of the republican candidate, but politically he represents every thing that is repulsive to democracy and antagonistic to our idea of good government. There is neither reason nor sense in turning the State over to his gang and no true democrat will falter when such an alternative presents itself. Either Hardin or Bradley will be elected governor but the latter can only be by the aid of democrats. Is any good democrat willing to be responsible for such a result? If not let's all get together and send Col. Bradley and his party to the rear where it ought to go and stay.

Like the woman who swearing that she'd ne'er consent, consented, Editor James M. Richardson has accepted the democratic nomination for representative from Barren county. He is an ultra free silver man and since Hardin's interpretation of the platform to suit that populistic idea, Mr. Richardson feels himself free to run for anything. In fact it is said that he is already out for speaker of the House, so confident is he that his election is as sure as his calling. Barring the dogma that he hogs to his bosom, with a tenacity worthy of a better cause, there are no better men than Jim Richardson and he will render the State good service. Here's looking at him and hoping that he may never "come out bebind."

Joe Coxen, who used to live in this county and married here, is running for the Legislature in Woodford on a "Thomas Jefferson, Andrew Jackson, Grover Cleveland and John G. Carlisle democrat" and "Joe Blackburn, free silver and free turnpikes platform." Joe is evidently so anxious to catch 'em a'coming and a'gwine, that he gets things mixed up. We do not see how a man can declare for Carlisle and be for Joe Blackburn, or be a Cleveland democrat and want free silver. We are afraid our ex-countyman has been learning some bad tricks since he wandered away from Lincoln.

The Louisville Truth doesn't always live up to its name. That is to say it occasionally prevaricates. Its statement that a State official shared in the profits of the Mason-Ford Co. is pronounced absolutely false by President Charles E. Hoge and we know Mr. Hoge well enough to say his word is as good as his bond, and the latter has always been gilt edged. When ever a paper is short of something to write about it jumps on the Mason-Ford Co. till it has got to be disgusting. The Truth should prove its allegations with reference to the check or apologize.

The G. O. P. is in a hedges of a fix at Louisville. It attempted to hold a convention to nominate candidates for the Legislature, the general council, school trustee, county surveyor and park commissioner, but the A. P. A.'s took charge of it and ran it to their own sweet will, nominating a ticket which, the leading republicans repudiate. As the A. P. A.'s elected Evans to Congress they are entitled to some consideration at the hands of the republicans, who ought in equity and justice, to concede them these minor offices.

In his speech at Bowling Green, Col. Bradley quoted from the INTERIOR JOURNAL of April, 1882, to show that the Legislature that had just adjourned had cost $150,000, without giving the State anything like value received. What is writ is writ and if such quotations do the colonel any good he is welcome to them for his assiduity in keeping a file of what he kindly chooses to term the best democratic paper in the State.

ALTHOUGH the vote was a tie and the committee was for him, Mr. Simrall accepted Mayor Duncan's proposition that they run the race over for the mayoralty nomination and another election will be held Sept. 12. The more politics the more hell, especially in Lexington, and they are going to have a good deal of it there this Fall.

One leg of a pair of trousers was found in the stomach of a big shark caught near Annapolis, Md., a few days ago. The rest of the Jonah that he possibly swallowed had met a different fate from his Biblical prototype and had gone through the digestive organs.

The address which was to shed harmony all around in chunks a foot deep has not yet materialized. The committee appointed to present it is likely not equal to the task, judging from its composition.

The Georgetown Times, the democracy of whose editor has never during his long and useful career been questioned, thinks that Gen. Hardin has placed the party in most embarrassing position by his erroneous construction of the platform, and will give him its support simply because he is the nominee of the party, and because it does not want the State to pass under republican control. "True democracy" always yields to the will of the majority.

After remaining on the fence as long as he could and much longer than he wanted to, Mr. Emmett Logan has flown down into the barn yard and is now the gamest rooster of them all. We knew he'd do it. Gen. Hardin's course is not such as to make sound money men love him, but we can take him scars and all, eat crow and even buzzard, in preference to swallowing the filthy republican coon.

This is rank treason. A Versailles man, Mr. Wm. Botkins, who lives in a stone's throw of Senator Blackburn, has named the latest addition to his family, "John G. Carlisle." Joe will likely have an act of Congress passed ordering Mr. Botkins to "git off de earth," after such a performance.

So far we have heard of no opposition to the election of Mr. Ulric J. Howard, of Ghent, as Clerk of the next House. He is ambitious, popular and proficient and would make a capital officer. Let the old pap suckers stand aside and give the young man a chance.

THE BIG TRESTLE on the L. & N. near town will soon be a thing of the past. A culvert has been built and now 50 hands are making an embankment.

CHEAP.—The L. & N. will sell tickets to Louisville from Stanford on account of the G. A. R., Sept. 8 to 11 inclusive at $2.10 for the round-trip—good to return till Oct. 5. J. S. Rice, agent.

SQUIRE MURRAY, who has passed the 80th mile post in the journey of life, says that he has seen days of hotter weather, but never so many hot days as this summer. The heat has been intense all the week, the nights being almost as hot as the days.

THE POSTMASTER of Mt. Sterling was arrested and placed in jail for refusing to pay his dog tax. We do not know that persons here have refused to pay, for they have not been asked, but if anyone does, what's the matter with letting him board awhile with Jailer DeBorde.

THE COLLEGE will open next Tuesday and the new principal, Dr. William Shelton, asks us to impress upon the patrons the importance of having their children enter the first day. It will help them in calculably and be of benefit to the teachers. Misses Harris, Cowan and Martin will arrive Monday.

IT is rumored that the L. & N. has secured control of Cumberland Gap tunnel and will take charge Sept. 1, when they will arch it with brick and stop the serious delays constantly occurring by the roof falling in. Transfers of passengers and baggage have had to be made there for several weeks.

FOR generations were photographed by Mr. A. J. Earp a few days ago: Mrs. J. S. Bleedoo, Mrs. J. P. Bailey, Mrs. H. D. Gregory and Catherine Louisa Gregory. The latter, who is a little beauty, is unusually well supplied with parents. She has two great-grandparents, four grand parents and her own parents.
